Circular C. No 6 of 1917-18, dated 29*th December* 1917.

To—All Inspecting Officers of the Education Department and Managers of Aided Institutions.

The attention of all Inspecting officers is invited to this office memo No. 11293-11334, dated 7th December 1915, forwarding copy of Government Order No. G. 4229-69—G. M. 157-07-4, dated 22nd January 1908, issuing instructions that covers containing correspondence to any Government officer by a private person on State affairs should be sent with a superscription "on Service Unpaid". Complaints are being received from the postal authorities that such communications are generally made now with the superscription "On Mysore Government Service" instated of "On Service Unpaid" as instructed in the above. Inspecting Officers, Managers of Aided Institutions and such of the public as have to correspond with Departmental officers on matters connected with the Department are requested to strictly adhere to the above instructions.

All communications on State affairs by private bodies or individuals should invariably be sent in future superscribed "On Service Unpaid", the covers being duly franked by the senders. If on the other hand, any cover is sent to a Departmental officer with a superscription "On Mysore Government Service", the postal authorities will charge double the postage on such covers and recover it from the sender. Inspecting Officers are particularly requested to issue clear instructions to all the Grant-in-aid masters in the matter.

M. SHAMA RAO,
Inspector-General of Education.
